

WARM Training Center

WARM Training Center promotes the development of resource efficient, affordable, healthy homes and communities through education, training and technical assistance.

Sunstructures Architects assisted the group in the development of a sustainable plan for the renovation of their offices. In addition, work was completed on the restoration of their facade.

- View from Grand River Avenue

